10th Annual April Fair Housing Month

Fair Housing Month, held in April to mark the anniversary of the passing of the Federal Fair Housing Act in April 1968, brings people of all ages and backgrounds together to celebrate, create, and learn. This 10th annual statewide series of events combines education and art to raise awareness about housing discrimination and the positive role that inclusive, affordable housing plays in thriving communities.

Coordinated by the Fair Housing Project of the Champlain Valley Office of Economic Opportunity in collaboration with the Vermont Human Rights Commission and many other partners, this year's events include in-person and virtual events, the all-ages HeART & Home Community Art Project, book groups, and more!

Here's a sampling:

April 1: JUST ACTION Keynote Event with authors Leah Rothstein & Richard Rothstein (author of The Color of Law) at Main Street Landing Performing Arts Center in Burlington with statewide book group.

All Month: Arts So Wonderful Exhibit at Burlington City Hall with April 26 celebration.

All Month: HeART & Home Art Kits distributed throughout the state at libraries, housing sites, and community groups.

Why Fair Housing and Art? Art and creative expression help connect people to one another as well as to big ideas. By celebrating and promoting housing equity and justice through the arts, people of all ages, skills, abilities, and backgrounds can connect over what home, community, inclusivity, and diversity mean to them.

YOU can be a part of this important event! See other side for sponsorship levels.
